Which motion prevailed.

The roll being called the following members responded to their names:

Present—Messrs.

Anderson	Franklin	Poster
Baker	Hunter	Ross
Bergmann	Landsdorfer	Sharp
Bisset	Leslie	Sigel
Black	Magill	Simon, AV
Blessing	Miller	Simon, Ike
Burke, J N	Moran	Straessley
Burke, Wm	Morgan	Sweeney

When the Clerk called the name of Mr. Bloedel, Mr. Burke arose and said:

"Mr. Bloedel is sick at his home after an operation for appendicitis."

Absent—Mr. Bloedel.

A quorum being present Council proceeded to the election of a President.

Mr. McGrath arose and said:

"At this time I place in nomination the name of a young man, who while no stranger to the older members who served in the last term of Councils, has proven himself a very efficient man and in whom we have every confidence, and who we feel is competent to fill the position with the same integrity and faithfulness as he did as a member of the Council and the different committees he has served on, and I therefore take pleasure in nominating Dr. Frank C. Blessing for Chairman of Common Council."

Mr. Black arose and said:

"Mr. Chairman and members of Common Council, the honor of seconding the motion to elect a man who has been a colleague of mine for the last two years is greatly appreciated by me. I have known him to be a wise, capable man, and I would respectfully second the motion."

Mr. Forrest arose and said:

"I would deem it an injustice not only on myself, but also upon my constituents of the Fifteenth ward, if I did not at this time second the nomination of my friend and colleague, Dr. Frank C. Blessing, who has served faithfully and true both myself and his constituents. He is loved and respected in the community in which he resides, no better proof of which can be found than that he was almost unanimously elected to fill the position he has had for the past three years. I know him to be a broad-thinking man, and I do not think you could select a more capable man than my colleague, Dr. Blessing. I therefore second the nomination and trust that it will be unanimously decided."

Mr. Franklin arose and said:

"It gives me great pleasure to at this time also second the nomination of Dr. Blessing. As one of the 15 old members to be re-elected, I can assure you that Dr. Blessing enjoyed the respect of all the members of the old body, and I feel confident that the new members will respect him as we did. It gives me great pleasure to second this nomination."

President F. C. Blessing arose and said:

"Gentlemen, in accepting the office and duties of Chairman of Common Council, I desire to express my thanks to you members for the honor you have conferred upon me. The citizens of Pittsburgh have already honored my ward by electing as its chief executive the Mayor, William A. Magee, and you gentlemen have further honored my constituents and myself by selecting me as your Chairman. I esteem it an honor to be elected Chairman of this body in this great city; it is an honor worthy of any man's ambition. For my friends who have so kindly escorted me to the Chair I have nothing but kind wishes and good feeling. The citizens of Pittsburgh have sent you gentlemen here to do your duty; they expect each and every member here to do his duty; the Chairman of this body will expect you to do your duty, not as some one or some set of men dictate it to you, but as your reason, judgment and conscience dictate it to you. Your constituents sent you here to act for them, and gentlemen, you should do them honor. You are responsible to no man beneath the skies except to your constituents. I expect to have the confidence of this body, and I assure you you shall have mine at all times. I may make some mistakes, but with your good will and support we cannot go wrong. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, } ss:
County of Allegheny,

I, William B. Kirker, Prothonotary of the Courts of Common Pleas No. in and for the County and State aforesaid, Do Hereby Certify That at an election held on the 16th day of February, A. D. 1909, William A. Magee having received 48,065 votes, was duly elected to the office of Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, County and State aforesaid.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court the 12th day of March, 1909.

WILLIAM B. KIRKER,

(seal)

Prothonotary.

Which was read, received and filed.

Mr. Forrest moved

That a committee of five (5), three (3) from Common Council and two (2) from Select Council be appointed to notify the Mayor-elect and escort him to the Common Council chamber for the purpose of administering to him the oath of office.

Which motion prevailed.

President Edwards appointed, on behalf of Select Council, Messrs. Hildorfer and Williams.

President Blessing appointed, on behalf of Common Council, Messrs. Forrest, Straessley and Bergmann.

The committee having retired, returned, introduced Hon. William A. Magee, the Mayor-elect, who took and subscribed to the oath of office, which was administered to him by President Edwards, of Select Council.

Mayor Magee said:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of Select and Common Councils—I have expressed myself so frequently in the recent past upon all the questions before the people of our city about their affairs that it may not be necessary now to go over the whole ground again at length.

"One thing I wish to emphatically reiterate is, that I fully appreciate, in the highest degree, the sense of responsibility that a public servant should feel to his constituents. The sacred trust committed to me by the people will never for a single moment be out of my consciousness. And I think I have made it plain, heretofore, that I am not unaware of the complexities and difficulties of the office of chief magistrate of a great city. I have expressed frequently an acknowledgment of my own limitations, but I have also placed myself on record as being prepared to give my whole time and whatever energy and ability I am possessed of to the service; at the same time to view every matter from the standpoint of the best interests of the people of every class and condition, and to put away every thought of personal gain or selfishness. I pledge myself, through you, the representatives of the people in the legislative branch of the government, that I will strictly conform to these obligations.

"The magnitude of the problems, the amount of routine, the quantity of persons having business with the city, and the number engaged in doing the work of this city, is perhaps unequalled by those of any state in the Union, and is surpassed only by a few cities of greater population.

"It has been well said that the most striking social phenomenon of the last generation is the rapid expansion of great cities. Not only has a large heterogeneous population been suddenly thrown together within narrow territorial confines, causing a great mass of business in which all have a common or mutual interest, but the very intimate association of so many human beings has given rise to new situations and necessities in the light of modern progress hitherto undreamed of. And when these matters come to be formulated for action they must be considered from so many points of view and, being of interest to all, must necessarily, in their solutions, be subject to the critical judgment of so many different minds, that it is not strange that results do not often meet with the highest expectations.

"American city government has often been called the weak point in our democratic system. European municipalities and the results attained there cannot be compared fundamentally with ours. We are making a vast experiment in self-government. We are feeling our way along a new path which we believe will eventually lead to the highest efficiency and at the same time keep the destinies of the people in their own individual hands, and not compel them to submit themselves to the direction of any superior power, no matter how enlightened and benevolent, either in the socialistic or paternal form. The progress has been slow.

"The success of all government depends upon the men who make and execute the laws and the extent to which their acts can be affected by the play of public opinion. In our own city and in our own time there have been three charters, each based upon a different conception. The first previous to the year 1888, based on the theory that the best results could be obtained by a large number of executive officials, placed all branches of the service under boards or commissions selected at different times and in a variety of ways. From 1888 to 1901 the business was more consolidated, and, although the number of executive officials was reduced, they were selected by Councils. Both systems were justly criticised, because responsibility to the people was too widely distributed. Where, as was often the case, one matter came within the cognizance of more than one branch or department of the service and the inevitable claim of jurisdiction or denial of responsibility arose, it frequently became impossible for the public mind, immersed naturally in personal affairs, to bring the public servants to account. As a remedy to this condition this city, as well as most other large cities in this country, adopted the Federal plan, vesting all the executive powers of the municipality in the Mayor. In thus placing this enormous power and responsibility of administration upon one man they take no little risk. They commit to him and his subordinates a great mass of business in the nature of routine and detail that they do not hear of or know of, and, except when it affects them individually, do not care about. They look to him to give special study to their common wants and necessities, and expect him to be the incentive impulse for changes and improvements. But most important of all, they have committed to his administration of the law the safety of their lives, their health and property, and, to a considerable degree, the public morals and general welfare.

"The dominating thought of myself and my assistants during the next administration will be a sense of duty to the city. The police power shall not have any taint of alliance with vice or crime; the health of the public, and particularly of the poor, will be safeguarded zealously, and the discoveries of modern science further applied to meet conditions; a liberal policy will be followed regarding innocent recreation and amusement of the people, and particularly of the rising generation. Steps must be taken to initiate a new policy upon the subject of parks and the spirit of play further stimulated in order that the people can have the opportunity to counteract the tendency toward physical degeneration incident to congested city life.

"The paramount question before the community, and which requires immediate attention and first action, is the bringing about of different conditions in the conduct of the business of the Pittsburgh Railways Company. I intend to communicate to your honorable bodies in a more formal manner my ideas upon that situation.

"It has been said that 'every city needs a city plan.' A wise idea, and one giving much food for thought. The administration will consider it a duty to begin an investigation of the subject with a view to local application.

"The project known as the removal of the hump, which has received much attention for many years, but which met with the disapproval of a referendum some years ago, should be revived and given careful attention, with a view to again submitting it to a popular vote. In this connection, and with the further idea of relieving street congestion, the widening of such streets as Oliver avenue and Diamond street may be extended. The freeing of the bridges, the abolishing of grade crossings, the disposal of the sewage, the extension of the filtered water service, will all receive immediate attention.

"The notion of a city plan, the reduction of the sewage and many other matters of necessity cannot be adequately treated with exclusive reference to the present territorial limits of the city. We have one community extending from McKeesport to McKees Rocks and from Aspinwall and Oakmont to Emsworth that has a common destiny—common interests both of a general and a particular nature, and that has no separation except by the lines of local growth. They have so grown in population that they directly touch upon each other and have no reason for separate corporate existence except in some cases a selfish and parochial spirit really inimical to their own best interests as well as to the whole community. A movement should be immediately started with the intention of annexing and consolidating all adjoining built-up territory.

"The administration will at all times uphold the principle, now well settled, that no further franchises shall be granted, unless there be exceptional reasons, without compensation and only for limited periods.

"On the subject of the routine administration, I promise vigilant attention to detail; courtesy and attention to those having business with the departments and bureaus; economy in management; impartiality in public contracts, and a systematic and detailed method of book-keeping and accounting. A bureau or department of supplies should be introduced into the administration at the earliest possible moment, but I believe this must necessarily be postponed for this year owing to the lack of an appropriation.

"The spirit of the time has made movements among public-spirited citizens of an aesthetic, sociological and humanitarian nature a feature of communal life. While there may be much question as to the extent to which these activities come within the sphere of governmental supervision and administration, there can be no doubt of the boundless possibilities contained in this unselfish work and that a city government without being committed to any particular policy can be of great assistance in a general sense to these uplifting forces. Our administration shall lend the aid of its machinery to all praiseworthy causes of this character.

"While the law draws a clear line of demarkation between the law-making and law-executing branches of the government, the business of the city should bring and keep the members of both closely together. I express the hope that the relations between the two departments may always be amicable and satisfactory to both. I am not one of those who sees any impropriety or who frowns upon informal communications regarding the public business between officials of the different branches. You, as members of Councils, coming from different parts of the city, are looked to by your constituents to act as their agent in many perfectly legitimate transactions they have with the executive departments. Those at the head of the administrative side will lend their assistance to the members of your honorable bodies for the asking, and on the larger questions of policy desire an intimate and friendly spirit to prevail in order that misunderstandings may not cause a confusion of action and a working at cross purposes to the serious detriment of the city. Comment and criticism made in good faith is desirable and welcome. Advice in advance of action still more desirable, for it will frequently prevent mistakes. The members of the legislative department, as well as the public, are invited to make suggestions and to offer ideas. While the discretion vested in the Mayor is great, there is no disposition on my part to exercise it in an arbitrary manner. On the other hand, when I must take a course and make a decision between two opinions, or, according to my own belief of the right policy, I hope that I may always have the courage to do so regardless of all contrary opinion, and then I ask those who do not agree with me to remember that they have committed the final judgment to me and to at least await the outcome. I shall feel the more certain of my course and more assured of a successful administration in the conscientious intention of doing, in each matter, what I consider the city's best good.

"Greater Pittsburgh is a great city. Surrounded by natural resources, the development of which have drawn to it an enormous and variegated collection of human beings, it has become the center of one of the most largely populated and busiest districts of the world. Its topography and environment multiply the difficulties and cost of its management. If it has been somewhat laggard in its development and opportunities in some respects, there are reasons to excuse it to a large extent. But many believe that a new day has dawned; that a new civic spirit is being aroused; that the body politic has given evidence of an interest in the general welfare that will arouse into activity the latent abilities of our people for the public good.

"We are citizens of no mean city. Having the proud distinction of having been selected for a period as the chief individual factor in the direction of its business and civic development, I accept the task and its responsibility with the intention of giving to my fellow-townsmen and my city the best that is in me, with no other hope of reward than that I shall at the end of my term of office have done something for the common good and earned in some degree the approbation of my fellow-citizens."

Duties of President and Members.

Section 1. When two or more members arise at the same time, he shall designate the one entitled to the floor. He shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal from his decision.

Section 2. When a member is about to speak or communicate any matter to the Council, he shall rise and respectfully address the President confining his remarks to the subject before the Council, and avoiding personal reflections, and no member, unless by permission of Council, shall in any one meeting speak more than twice on the same matter, or in the aggregate more than ten minutes; provided, that the chairman of a committee, the matter of whose report shall be under discussion, shall speak twenty minutes in the aggregate should he so desire; nor shall any member, while speaking, be interrupted, except by a call to order by the President, by a member through the President, or by a member to explain.

Section 3. Every member presenting a paper to the President for the consideration of Council shall first endorse his name thereon, and state its general purport; and the name of such member, as also of every member who shall make any motion, shall be entered on the minutes of Council.

Section 4. If any member in debate transgresses the rules of Council, the president shall, or any member may, through the President, call him to order. The member so called to order shall, unless permitted to explain, immediately sit down until the question of order be determined, and, if the case requires it, the member so called to order shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars or to a censure of, or expulsion from the Council.

RULE V.

Conduct of Business and Debate.

Section 1. All ordinances for the appropriation of money, and all resolutions or orders to enter into contracts, whereby the city shall or may become liable for the payment of money; all ordinances and resolutions of a general or permanent character, shall be fully and distinctly read on three different days in the Council in which they originated, unless the rule shall be dispensed with by a vote of three-fourths of the members present in the Council in which the same may be pending, and shall, when not otherwise provided, require for their final passage or adoption, the concurrence in each Council of a majority of the members elected. All votes shall be taken viva voce or by standing, unless the yeas and nays shall be required by law or demanded, and such demand sustained by at least one-tenth of the members present.

Section 2. The yeas and nays may be demanded on any question at any time before the vote shall have been announced, and if, upon notice thereof given by the President, the demand be sustained by one-tenth of the members present, the Clerk shall take the vote by calling the names of the members in alphabetical order, except that the president's name shall be called last and the vote so taken shall be recorded in the minutes.

Section 3. No ordinance shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so altered or amended during its consideration as to change its original purpose.

No bill shall be considered unless presented in Council by a member, referred to a committee, returned therefrom and printed for the use of the members, and a copy of each bill (with the exception of those authorizing sewers or grading, paving and curbing) mailed to each member at least forty-eight hours previous to a meeting of Council, and when a bill is returned from committee with a negative recommendation, it shall be printed only upon order of either branch of Councils.

No bill shall be passed containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title.

Section 4. Every bill shall be read at length, all amendments made thereto shall be printed for the use of the members before the final vote is taken on the bill, and no bill shall become a law upon the same day on which it is introduced or reported. On its final passage, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the members for and against the same be entered in the journal, and a majority of the members elected be recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

No amendments to bills by one branch shall be concurred in by the other except by the vote of a majority of the members elected thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting for and against recorded in the journal thereof; and reports of committees of conference shall be adopted only by a vote of a majority of members elected to each branch, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting entered in the journals.

Section 5. Every legislative act of the Councils shall be by resolution or ordinance.

No ordinance giving any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, employe, agent or contractor, after service shall have been rendered or contract made, nor providing for the payment of any claim against the city, without previous authority of the law, shall be passed except by a two-thirds vote of the members elected in either branch.

Section 6. When any bill, upon its third reading and final passage, shall receive the votes of a majority of the members present, but not a majority of those elected, such bill shall be considered as laid upon the table, and may be called up for further action at the same or any subsequent meeting of Council.

Section 7. No ordinance or section thereof shall be revised or amended unless the new ordinance contains the entire ordinance or section so revised or amended, and the ordinance, section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Section 8. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except for adjournment, for the previous question, to lay upon the table, for indefinite postponement, for postponement to a time certain, for commitment, or for amendment. These questions shall have preference in the order above mentioned, and the first four shall be decided without debate. A motion to lay on the table being agreed to, shall place the subject in order of unfinished business.

Section 9. When a question has been once taken and decided affirmatively or negatively, it shall be in order for any member who may have voted in the majority to move for reconsideration, but no motion for reconsideration shall be in order unless made on the day when the vote was taken, or at the next subsequent meeting, and before final action of both Councils shall have placed the matter voted upon beyond recall; and if, before the motion to reconsider be made, the action to be considered shall have been communicated to the other Council, the motion shall be to recall and reconsider, and if the motion shall be agreed to, the Clerk shall inform the other Council thereof, and the papers in connection therewith shall be returned for further action to the Council in which the motion to reconsider was made, provided the other Council has taken no action on the subject. In case of a tie vote, none but a member voting in the negative may make a motion to reconsider. A motion to reconsider shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn, and no member shall speak on the question more than once or for longer than five minutes. No second motion to reconsider any question shall be entertained.

Section 10. The previous question shall not be moved by fewer than ten members rising for that purpose, and shall be determined without debate. When the previous question has been moved and sustained, it shall not cut off any pending amendment, but the vote shall be taken, without debate, on the amendments in their order and then on the main question; provided, that at least two hours' notice shall be given at the time when the previous question shall be called on the bill on second reading.

Section 11. No rule shall be suspended except by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the members present, and such vote shall be taken without debate.

Section 12. When a blank it to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the largest sum, the greatest number or the most distant date.

Section 13. A motion for adjournment shall always be in order, except while a member has the floor, or when Council is voting on any question, or when in a call for the previous question, the main question shall have been ordered to be now put, and shall be decided without debate.

RULE VI.

Reciprocal Duties of Councils.

Section 1. Communication with the other Council shall be through the Clerk, or through the President, or through some member appointed by the President.

Section 2. This Council will transmit to the other all papers, letters, memorials and remonstrances on which any ordinance or resolution shall be founded; but petitions, remonstrances and other matters referred by this Council to a standing committee without objection shall go at once to such committee without being sent to the other Council for concurrence in such reference.

Section 3. If any ordinance or resolution passed by one Council shall be amended by the other, and such amendment should not be concurred in by the Council first acting thereon, it may be receded from or insisted on by the Council in which such amendment was made, and, in the latter case, and also in case an ordinance or resolution passed by one Council should be non-concurred in or laid on the table by the other, due notice of such action shall be given and a Committee of Conference, composed of three members of each Council, shall be appointed for the purpose of effecting a common action by the two Councils, which committee shall report to their respective councils, and such reports shall be signed by a majority of the members from each branch, and the question of adopting the reports shall be decided without debate, except by members of the committee.

Section 4. After the other Council shall have adhered to its disagreement to any ordinance or resolution passed by this Council, the same shall be considered as negatived and shall not be revived in this Council.

RULE VII. Committees.

Section 1. The Presidents of Councils shall jointly appoint the standing committees. In all the committees, the Common Council shall have the majority.

Section 4. All reports from special committees shall be in writing, signed by the chairman and clerk thereof, and the papers referred shall be returned with the report. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prevent the introduction of minority reports.

Section 6. The rules of Councils, as far as applicable, shall govern all committees of Councils.

Section 7. No meeting of any standing committee shall be held within four (4) hours previous to a meeting of Council.

E. S. Morrow, Controller, Department of City Controller, Municipal Hall, Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Dear Sir—In making a return of my collections for the month of March, 1909, I call your attention to a discrepancy between the amount actually collected, as shown by the return sheets, and the amount turned over, as shown by the City Treasurer's receipt, of $38,126.36, in the old city of Pittsburgh, where the return sheets indicate a collection of $148,100.31 and I have available for this return only $109,973.95.

In the former city of Allegheny you will note a discrepancy between my return sheet and the city treasurer's receipt of $3,452.12, for while the return sheets indicate a total collection of $54,100.22, I have available for this return only $50,648.10.

This shortage, as you are no doubt aware, is due to the closing by the Government of the Cosmopolitan National Bank, and in this bank I still have about half the moneys deposited there by me, the Government's receiver having paid dividends aggregating 40 per cent.

I believe my account there to be fully covered by bonds in the sum of $150,000 and by a preferred claim of $96,000, upon which I expect to have a decision by the United States Supreme Court in a short time.

I am satisfied that with your indulgence for a short time I will be able to satisfy the shortage herein admitted, and thanking you for your courtesy in the matter until this time, I am,

Yours very truly,

L. R. GOSHORN.

Department of City Controller.

Pittsburgh April 22, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—In accordance with Section 4, title "City Controller," of the City Code, I report the delinquency of Mr. L. R. Goshorn, late Collector of Delinquent Taxes, in his failure to pay over to the City Treasurer the amount of money reported by him as collected.

The difference between the amount reported as received for the month of March, 1909, and the amount paid into the City Treasury, is $41,578.48.

This delinquency is due to the closing of the Cosmopolitan Bank, in which he had his money deposited and which is now in the hands of a receiver.

The city holds as security the bond of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, Maryland, in the sum of $100,000.

Mr. Goshorn has yet to report the collections made up until April 5. This report will be made later.

In conformity with law I have directed an audit of his accounts, and shall state and file the accounts in the Court of Common Pleas as required by the Act of 1901.

I enclose a copy of Mr. Goshorn's letter to me accompanying his return of April 20, which will more fully explain this unfortunate affair.

Yours respectfully,

E. S. MORROW,

Controller.

Also

No. 136. Communication from the City Controller relative to proposition of Mr. J. P. Kenan, of the Independent Horseshoers' Union, in relation to the shoeing of city horses, stating that the proposition should be considered, and if viewed favorably should be adopted.

The Chair presented

No. 187.

Mayor's Office.

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 1, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I beg to call your attention to Item 4, Appropriation No. 29, of the Appropriation Ordinance of 1909, providing the sum of ten thousand dollars for the use and purpose of aiding the Flood Commission of the Chamber of Commerce in its investigation of flood conditions and damages caused to the people of Pittsburgh by the same.

The said commission, after a preliminary investigation at its own expense covering a period of one year, has arrived at the stage where they have determined upon a comprehensive plan of action in their investigation, which will include a survey of the district affected within the limits of the city and a survey of certain portions of the water sheds and streams which affect this district, with a view to determining whether or not such conditions can be corrected and damages to property and the inconvenience of the people avoided; by walls or dikes along the river banks; by the elevation of the ground subject to overflow; by deepening and correction of navigable parts of the river channel; by the erection of storage reservoirs; by forestation of water sheds, and by any other means that may be proposed of a practical nature.

It is estimated that the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars will be needed for the actual work of ascertaining a complete plan for methods of flood protection about the city and flood prevention. The latter refers to the matter of impounding in the troublesome tributaries of our local streams and keeping away from our city the flood crests now so destructive to the vast interests of this city. Of this sum much more than ten thousand dollars must be expended within the city.

The commission is composed of a large number of public-spirited business men and reinforced by some of the leading engineers of the city, all of whom have given and are willing to continue to give their services to this examination without remuneration. It is the plan of the commission to call upon the owners of the property immediately affected to bear the expense of the investigation to the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars, and as the city owns and controls a part of the area in its wharves, public streets and other property, besides having its general interest in the matter, I beg to suggest to your honorable bodies that this sum be contributed to said Flood Commission in accordance with the intention of the Councils at the time the appropriation was made.

I suggest that this sum be given only upon condition that the same be used for the surveys to be made within the city.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

Mr. McGrath reported from the Special Committee of Common Council on C. C. Bill No. 94:

No. 283.

Pittsburgh, June 12, 1909.

To the President and Members of Common Council:

Gentlemen—Your special committee appointed for the purpose of considering C. C. Bill No. 94, "An Ordinance requiring the removal of all poles and the placing of all wires underground," beg leave to report this bill with an affirmative recommendation, and transmit herewith copy of the opinion of the City Solicitor, Charles A. O'Brien, on this Ordinance.

Yours respectfully,

A. G. MacCONNELL,

HUGH FERGUSON,

JOHN A. SHARP,

ROBERT BLACK,

THOS. F. McGRATH,

Committee.

June 10, 1909.

Gross MacConnell, Esq., Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Dear Sir—In accordance with the arrangement made with your committee having charge of the Ferguson pole and wire Ordinance, I beg to report on said Ordinance as follows:

First. After having made quite a thorough examination of the various existing Ordinances as found in the City Digests and the record of the City Clerk's office, relating to grants to the various telegraph, telephone, lighting and heating companies to erect poles and string wires, I am satisfied that there are no special conditions or contract relations between the city and said companies arising out of said grants which would prevent the city from enforcing said Ordinance if it is finally passed by Councils and duly approved.

Second. There would be no constitutional or legal objection whatever to having said Ordinance to apply only in certain districts of the city, for the reason and necessity for this Ordinance may exist in one part of the city and be wholly absent in another district of the city, depending entirely on actual conditions.

Respectfully yours,

C. A. O'BRIEN, City Solicitor.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also

C. C. Bill No. 94. An Ordinance requiring the removal of all poles and overhead wires used for the supplying of electricity for light or heat, and for telephone and telegraph purposes, from the highways, streets, lanes and alleys within the limits of the City of Pittsburgh, providing penalties for violation thereof and granting privileges for the use of highways, streets, lanes and alleys for underground systems."

In Common Council May 17, 1909. Read a first time and referred to a special committee of five, to report at the next regular meeting.

In Common Council June 1, 1909. Re-committed to the same committee.

Which was read a second time.

Mr. Burke, J. N., moved

To amend the bill on page 1, line 2, by adding the word "power."

Also

On line 3, page 1, by adding the word "trolley" after the word telephone.

Also

By striking out the word "highways" in the same line.

Also

By striking out in line 4, page 1, the words "lanes and alleys."

Mr. MacConnell moved

To lay all of the amendments offered by Mr. J. N. Burke on the table.

Which motion prevailed by the following vote:

Ayes—Messrs.

So the ayes were 19.

And the noes were 17.

So the motion prevailed.

And on motion of Mr. Ferguson Council adjourned.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

September 13, 1909.

To the Select and Common Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the Act of Assembly making it the duty of the Mayor to recommend to Councils such measures connected with the affairs of the City as he may deem expedient, I hereby suggest to your honorable bodies the consideration of a number of matters of immediate importance to the welfare of the City.

I beg to recommend the creation of a Board of Water Assessors in accordance with the powers granted in the recent Act of Assembly (May 8, 1909, P. L. 477) authorizing the same. The finances of the water system need thorough overhauling. Present charges in many cases are plainly wrong. Just complaint is made as to excessive charges in some cases and there is reasonable ground for belief that in many other cases the rates are deficient. The extension and maintenance of the water system requires the greatest outlay of any department of the City government. It is beyond the task of one man to thoroughly investigate and re-establish it on a sound basis.

I desire to call your attention to the Act of May 31, 1907 (P. L. 349), providing for the appointment of a Tree Commission in municipalities of the Commonwealth and defining their powers.

The purposes of the Act are in line with the modern and progressive conception of the jurisdiction of municipal government. In order to take advantage of the provisions of the Act, the same must be accepted and adopted by joint resolution of City Councils.

As following the wise example of other large cities, I beg your honorable bodies to give consideration to a bill prohibiting the indiscriminate use of fire works and toy fire arms. This is directed principally towards a sane celebration of Independence Day, a good illustration of which we had on that occasion this year. The people by common consent abstained in very large measures from the practices indulged in at former events with the result that the community escaped almost without fatality and with only a few accidents. Public opinion being now crystalized it needs now only the sanction of law to abandon a foolish habit, accomplish a great saving of life and limb and restore to our National holiday the sacred character it was originally intended to have.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM A. MAGEE,
Mayor.

No. 386.

Mayor's Office.

Pittsburgh, September 13, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I beg to suggest to your honorable bodies the consideration of certain public improvements with a view to the passage of an Ordinance submitting to the people the question of increasing the indebtedness of the city for the payment of the same.

It is imperative that the high character of water service enjoyed by the old city be extended to the North Side. A new pumping station and a new reservoir to supply the former City of Allegheny will cost approximately $800,000 and $1,200,000, respectively. Land adjoining the filtration plant necessary for its extension should be taken now, and the estimated value of same is $400,000. The existing pumping stations need additional outlays to the extent of at least $100,000.

Experience of other cities justifies the belief that the universal introduction of water meters would reduce our consumption of water upwards of 30 per cent. About 10 per cent. of the domestic consumers have meters already installed and there is a constant demand for same, but the present rate of introduction is at too slow a rate to prevent the present capacity of the water system being overtaken by the increasing consumption due to the natural growth of the population. To meter the entire city would require an outlay of $1,500,000. I suggest that on the basis of supplying the entire territory in about six years a beginning be made at once with an appropriation of one-third of the above sum, the meters so provided to be installed during the first one or two years, and the balance to be provided from year to year out of the annual appropriation Ordinance. It is my opinion that the prompt installation of meters with the additional supply from the ten filter beds now in course of construction will postpone the necessity for additional filter capacity for several years. There are small areas of the South Side not now supplied by the municipal water system, but receiving water of a fair degree of quality, which seems to be satisfactory to the consumers on that ground, but which is objectionable owing to the excessive rates. The proposal to parallel the lines of the existing companies is not free from doubt either legally or morally, and the suggestion to purchase the lines within the city limits is hardly a good one. The best plan temporarily is for the city to step in between the companies and their customers, purchase the water in quantity and re-sell the same to the consumers, charging the usual city rate. The net cost to the city will be comparatively little. Upon the ultimate annexation of the other territory supplied by the companies the municipality can economically take over the whole property of the companies and directly supply its citizens.

The insistent demand to free the principal bridges over the Allegheny river should be granted. This improvement, delayed for so many years because of the great cost, might for the same reason be prevented many more, but for the enlightened conception of their duties toward the city held by the present progressive Board of County Commissioners, Messrs. Campbell, O'Neil and Toole, place themselves on record as favoring the payment of practically all of the cost by the county. Under the provisions of the act the city must contribute some part in order to have the control of the structures when freed, and therefore it is suggested that about $300,000 be set aside for this purpose.

The County Commissioners also have joined with the state officials in providing means for an armory for the Eighteenth Regiment and Battery B of the National Guard. Since these organizations are entirely local in their membership and the new institution will be of great public benefit, I respectfully suggest a contribution of $50,000 by the city to the necessary outlay.

For the reconstruction of two important bridges, viz., Sylvan Avenue Bridge, crossing Four-Mile run and Boundary street, and Butler Street Bridge, crossing Hights run, and the reconstruction of the Try street drainage basin and Soho run drainage basin, and the construction of relief sewers for the Negley run basin and the Two-Mile run or Thirty-third street basin the sum of $850,000 will be needed in the aggregate. All are of great immediate necessity, and further delay means actual loss to a large part of the population.

The suggestion of a reduction of the grade of the streets on the so-called "hump" is one requiring not much observation beyond its comparative insignificant cost and the economy that might be accomplished by making the improvement at the same time as another one equally important: I mean the raising of the grades of all or at least the principal streets both on the north and south banks of the Ohio and Allegheny rivers. By obtaining a large majority of releases of damages, as has already been done in the "hump" case, and as can I believe be readily procured in the "Flood District," the expense can be reduced to the physical cost. As between the 17.9 and 14.3 foot cut of the "hump," the former includes 50 per cent. more area than the latter. The owners who have executed a release come almost entirely from within the more restricted area, about 65 per cent. of the latter having waived their damages. While I do not fear the award of great damages in either event, I feel it is doubtful if the voters would care to take the risk of proceeding unless assured beyond question that there will be practically no damages. The estimated cost of the cut of greater depth is $1,000,000; of the shallower cut $600,000. I respectfully recommend the latter, and the sum of $400,000 for a number of the streets in the "Flood District," the same to be determined by the willingness of the owners of the property abutting on the respective streets to join with the city in effecting the improvements. The example set by raising the grades of Seventh and Ninth streets and Sandusky street is sure to be followed by other streets, and the improvement being of such general consequence the city should be ready to enter upon the work.

There can be little doubt that the people of Pittsburgh appreciate the importance of playgrounds and recreation parks. Much progress has already been made, but unfortunately not in the most congested districts of population where most needed. A city of this size could profitably invest several millions in this form of public enterprise, but considering our financial condition and the wide range of our necessities an expenditure of $500,000 would largely answer the present demands. This suggests the thought of adapting our large parks to general public utility. Beyond the annual national festival and an occasional outing our larger parks in actual fact are the private domain of only one class, while the great mass of the people who mostly need the benefits to be derived from them hardly ever enter them. The reasons are plain: The parks are not equipped for recreation and the transportation facilities are not adequate to meet the needs of any except those who can afford a private conveyance. I think the expenditure of some such sum as $200,000 for baseball diamonds, tennis courts, golf courses, shelter houses, benches, etc., and the extension of the street car service closer to the center of the larger parks would popularize the parks.

Pittsburgh has already made great strides in stamping out tuberculosis. I recommend the expenditure of $250,000 for a tuberculosis camp to be located within the city limits, at which unfortunates can receive care and treatment without abandoning their occupations. In addition to the recent bond issue for the disposal and destruction of rubbish, I suggest the further sum of $100,000 be set apart, so that the subject of the disposal of all the municipal refuse, including rubbish, garbage, ashes, street sweepings, etc., can be considered and planned as a whole. In this connection it may be said at this time some method of rubbish collection and disposal will be put into operation at the beginning of the next fiscal year.

A number of great thoroughfares can be improved to the great advantage to the general public. I refer to the Try street crossing on Second avenue, the extension of Hamilton avenue or Kelly street westwardly to Penn avenue, the widening and straightening of South Eighteenth street, the improvement of Sedgwick street and Allegheny avenue on the North Side, the raising of the grade and paving of West Carson street on the South Side. The sum of $500,000 should be set aside for these purposes.

While I have mentioned an approximate amount for each of the proposals above they are all merely estimates; some necessarily not detailed estimates, such as the Tuberculosis Hospital owing to the uncertainty of the site, the improvement of the streets because of the uncertainty of property damages, the cost of the Allegheny river bridges, etc.

There will no doubt be some deficiencies and some excesses in the amounts estimated. If all are included in one bond issue the one will probably balance the other.

I therefore recommend one bond issue of six million seven hundred and fifty thousand ($6,750,000) dollars for all of the purposes enumerated.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

Mr. Forrest reported from the Committee on Revision of Salaries, with the request that the bills be referred affirmatively to the Committee on Finance:

No. 433.

Pittsburgh, September 27, 1909.

To the President and Members of Select and Common Council:

Gentlemen—The Committee on Revision of Salaries, after a careful investigation of S. C. Bill No. 209, which Ordinance proposes the placing of the compensation of the Collector of Delinquent Taxes upon a salary basis at $8,000 per annum, in view of the many erroneous statements relating to said office, submits the following facts and recommendations:

The office was created in 1877 by an Act of Assembly, which provides a penalty of ten (10) per cent. for delinquents and which permitted the Collector to retain the same. Both the penalty upon the delinquent and the Collector's commission were reduced in 1881 to 5 per cent. In 1896 the Collector's compensation was reduced to 3 per cent., and in 1906 to 2 per cent. During the latter year, by agreement between the Mayor and the Collector of Delinquent Taxes, the latter agreed to waive all of his 2 per cent. commission in excess of $6,000 per annum and the actual cost of operating his office. The present incumbent is receiving compensation at the rate of 2 per cent.

The Acts of Assembly which govern this office provide that liens against real estate for delinquent taxes shall be filed not later than the last day of the third year after the year in which they are levied and that previous to their being filed the Collector shall advertise a list of the same. For this long period of delinquency, as well as for any intermediate period, the uniform penalty of 5 per cent. is charged the delinquent. In actual practice, the advertisement for taxes has usually been made about one year and eight months after the March installment of taxes are due and payable and the liens filed several months after that. Thus the law invites the taxpayer to be delinquent by allowing him to have almost two years' use of his money at a rate of interest less than one-half of the legal rate. A provision made for the necessitous has unquestionably been taken advantage of by the speculator.

The office was created, and until three years ago was conducted upon the same theory as that upon which all bad debts are collected, viz., an offer of a reward to the collector proportionate to his success. There is a certain percentage of the taxes levied which are not collected in the year in which they are levied, and a smaller percentage is not collected until the time the taxes are advertised, and still another part are paid when the lien is filed, and after that when property is sold by Sheriff's sale.

It is the duty of the incumbent of this office to accelerate the payment of all delinquent taxes so that the highest possible sum will be received into the City Treasury during the fiscal year for which they were levied. Each year, in making the annual appropriation ordinance, a guess must be made as to what per cent. of the current levy will be received. The Charter Acts forbids the expenditure of any money appropriated unless the same is actually in the Treasury. A wrong estimate of the receipts made at the beginning of a year is likely to throw the affairs of the city into confusion towards the close of the year, if the full amount estimated has not been actually collected. There is well-founded belief at this time that the estimate of revenues for the year 1909 was in excess of what will be actually received and that the city will have a deficit of several hundred thousand dollars at the end of the current fiscal year.

The question for Councils to determine in this case is not so much whether the Collector receives more or less than what would be a fair salary, but what sort of compensation would bring in the greatest amount of taxes at the earliest possible moment. The meager penalty provided by the law and the long period of time allowed before forcible collection, being an inducement to delinquency, a counter inducement should be provided in some form. There is no doubt, and it is no reflection upon any of the incumbents to say it, but only a sample of ordinary human nature, that any Collector would bring in more or less, according to the rate of his compensation—the more he is paid, the more unusual diligence will he exercise in executing the functions of his office. If he is paid on an extremely small percentage basis, or if he is paid a fixed moderate salary, he will naturally perform his duties in a perfunctory and routine manner that cannot yield the desired results.

Since both methods have been tried in this city in recent years, comparisons of the returns might be made that would throw considerable light upon the question.

On April 1, 1903, at which time the taxable valuation of the real estate in the city amounted to $320,000,000, the total of delinquent taxes for all previous years amounted to $758,000. On April 1, 1906, when the taxable valuation was $409,000,000, the delinquent taxes amounted to $1,020,000. In April, 1909, when the taxable valuations were $622,000,000, the sum of delinquent taxes had grown until the same amounted to $3,324,000. The total of delinquent taxes had grown during the six years four and one-half times, while the valuations on which the taxes are based less than doubled.

During the first three years the commission system of collection was in operation, and during the latter three years the same were collected on a salary basis. From 20 to 50 per cent. more was collected each year during the former three years than during the latter.

At the beginning of the first period taxes amounting to .00237 of the total valuations were uncollected; at the end of the same .00249 of the total valuations were on the delinquent books; at the end of the second period, during which the salary plan was in vogue, the percentage of uncollected taxes had grown to .00534.

The committee has also investigated the many wild reports as to the compensation that would be received by the collector at the present rate of compensation, and find the same to be in all cases mere inventions and exaggerations. Taking the last three years as a basis, the collections, for both Pittsburgh and Allegheny, amounted to $4,062,341.74 from July 1, 1906, to April 5, 1909, a period of 33 months. The expenses of the office for the year 1908 were $18,000. Assuming that to have been the aggregate of the two offices for each of the other two years, the total expenses during the period of 33 months amounted to $49,500.

Two per cent. of the amount collected is $96,064.22, leaving a difference of $46,564.22, and making the annual net receipts of the Collector $15,521.40.

The committee is of the belief that extraordinary measures are necessary to reduce the large and increasing amount of delinquent taxes; that the commission system will be productive of the best results and that it will be necessary, probably, to enlarge the corps of clerks and assistants, and therefore recommends that the compensation of the Collector be fixed at three-tenths of five per centum and that at the next session of the Legislature a bill be presented re—a reduction in the period allowed delinquents for payment and increasing the amount of the penalty.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. FORREST.

Resolved, That the City Solicitor shall be and he is hereby authorized and directed to satisfy the said lien filed at No. 1581 October Term, 1904, against the said Mark N. The Chair presented

No. 473.

October 21, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Gentlemen—I return herewith C. C. No. 326, being a resolution providing for the payment of $4,500.00, together with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent. from the time of the investment of said sum by the Squirrel Hill Land Company in the streets of the Murray Hill revised plan of lots in the Fifteenth ward, without my approval, for the reason that the contract between the land company and the city contained in C. C. No. 1139, approved November 28, 1905, did not provide for the payment of interest upon the sum invested. The city does not receive through its water rents interest upon its investment in water improvements. It would, therefore, be improper to permit the disbursement in this case of money which the city has never received.

Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM A. MAGEE,
Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also

C. C. No. 326. Resolution authorizing the issuing of a warrant in favor of the Squirrel Hill Land Company for $4,500.00, together with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent. per annum from the time of the completion of said work, and charge Appropriation No. 32, Bureau of Water.

Which was read.

Also

No. 474.

October 21, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Gentlemen—I am compelled to return you herewith C. C. No. 226, being a resolution in favor of Thomas Sweeney & Co. for $245.38 for extra work in the improvement of the Lawrenceville Park, without my approval, firstly, for the reason that the appropriation is not charged to any particular item in the appropriation Ordinance, and secondly, because of my doubt of the justice of the claim.

Very respectfully,
WILLIAM A. MAGEE,
Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also

C. C. No. 226. Resolution authorizing the issuing of a warrant in favor of Thomas Sweeney & Co. for $245.38.

Mr. Burke, J. N., presented

No. 475. An Ordinance authorizing the transfer of the sum of $2,250.00 from item "Twenty-fifth ward," to item "Building steps on Cawley street, from Grandview avenue to West Carson street," Appropriation No. 48, Boardwalks and Steps.

Which was referred to the Committee on Public Works.

Mr. Hunter presented

No. 478. Petition of Elizabeth Hoffman asking for satisfaction of tax liens on property on Brighton road, Twenty-seventh ward.

Also

No. 479. Whereas, A tract of land containing about 26 acres, situate on the Brighton road, in the Twenty-seventh ward, Pittsburgh (formerly Eleventh ward, Allegheny), owned by Elizabeth T. Hoffman has been assessed by the City of Pittsburgh for street improvements, sewers and general taxes to the amount of $19,361.13, as shown by statement hereto annexed; and

Whereas, The said land is mainly used for farming purposes and the income therefrom is small and the said property is at the present time unmarketable and the owner is unable to pay the said assessments; and

Whereas, If the payment of the said assessments is enforced by the sale of the said property, it is probable the city will be compelled to buy in the same; and

Whereas, It is believed the assessments are in excess of the benefit accruing to the said land by reason of the improvements and that it would be equitable to reduce the same; and

Whereas, The owner of the said land proposes to pay the city the sum of $12,000.00 in full settlement of the said assessments and taxes, and it is to the advantage of the city to accept the said sum rather than to enforce a sale of the land; therefore be it

Resolved, That the City Attorney be authorized and directed to receive from the said Elizabeth T. Hoffman the sum of $12,000.00 in full payment of the said assessments and taxes, and that upon payment of said sum the said assessments and taxes and any liens therefor be marked "satisfied and fully discharged."

Which were referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Forrest presented from the Special Committee on Revision of Salaries, with the request that the bills be referred to the Finance Committee:

the increase of the indebtedness of the City of Pittsburgh were printed on the official ballots used at the general election held Tuesday, November 2, 1909.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, } ss:
County of Allegheny,

Personally, before me, the undersigned authority in and for said County and Commonwealth, appeared W. S. Mc-Clatchey, who being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is Chief Clerk in the office of the County Commissioners of the County of Allegheny, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and held such position on and prior to November 2, 1909, and has knowledge of the facts hereinafter set forth.

That the County Commissioners, as required by law, prepared for and distributed to all the election districts in and throughout said county all official ballots, specimen ballots, tally sheets, etc., used in the holding of the general election held throughout said County of Allegheny on Tuesday, November 2, 1909.

That on all the official ballots prepared for, and used in, each and all of the election districts of the City of Pittsburgh at said election the question was submitted to the electors of said City of Pittsburgh relative to an increase of the bonded indebtedness of said city.

That said County Commissioners are required by law, for the use of the electors at all elections, to have specimen ballots printed for each election district, rect copies of the official ballots used at the election in each election district.

That the specimen ballot hereto attached is a true and correct copy of the official ballot used in the district and ward of said city of which it purports to be such or disapproval, and said question in the form and in the manner shown on said specimen ballot was printed on all the official ballots used at said general election in each of the several election districts in and throughout the said City of Pittsburgh, at the general election held Tuesday, November 2, 1909, and furthermore, no other ballots were printed for, or used in, the several election districts of said City of Pittsburgh, at said election, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the people as to an increase of the bonded indebtedness of said city except the official ballot hereinbefore mentioned.

Whereas, The Director of the Department of Charities found on investigation that the method of distributing outdoor relief in the North Side district was more costly and not as satisfactory as the method pursued in the old Pittsburgh district, and therefore changed the method to that used in the latter district; and

Whereas, This change necessitated the furnishing of a much larger number of hams than was contemplated in the original contract; and

Whereas, Since the award of said contract the price of California hams has advanced to 12½c per pound, and his bid for furnishing them was 8½c per pound, thus entailing a heavy monthly loss on each order; therefore

Resolved, That the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Charities shall be and are hereby empowered and directed (by and with the consent of Henry Krelling & Co., the contractors for furnishing California hams to the Department of Charities) to annul the said contract and to release the bondsmen from all liability under it, in as far as California hams are concerned.

Whereas, The said land is mainly used for farming purposes and the income therefrom is small and the said property is at the present time unmarketable and the owner is unable to pay the said assessments; and

Whereas, If the payment of the said assessments is enforced by the sale of the said property, it is probable the city will be compelled to buy in the same; and

Whereas, The owner of the said land proposes to pay the city the sum of $12,000.00 in full settlement of the said assessments and taxes, and it is to the advantage of the city to accept the said sum rather than to enforce a sale of the land; therefore be it

Resolved, That the City Attorney be authorized and directed to receive from the said Elizabeth T. C. C. No. 479. Whereas, A tract of land containing about 26 acres, situate on the Brighton road, in the Twenty-seventh ward, Pittsburgh (formerly Eleventh ward, Allegheny), owned by Elizabeth T. Hoffman, has been assessed by the City of Pittsburgh for street improvements, sewers and general taxes to the amount of $19,361.13, as shown by statement hereto annexed; and

Whereas, The said land is mainly used for farming purposes and the income therefrom is small and the said property is at the present time unmarketable and the owner is unable to pay the said assessments; and

Whereas, If the payment of the said assessments is enforced by the sale of the said property, it is probable the city will be compelled to buy in the same; and

Whereas, It is believed the assessments are in excess of the benefit accruing to the said land by reason of the improvements, and that it would be equitable to reduce the same; and

Whereas, The owner of the said land proposes to pay the city the sum of $14,000.00 in full settlement of the said assessments and taxes, and it is to the advantage of the city to accept the said sum rather than to enforce a sale of the land; therefore be it

Resolved, That the City Attorney be authorized and directed to receive from the said Elizabeth T. Hoffman the sum of $14,000.00 in full payment of the said assessments and taxes, and that upon payment of said sum the said assessments and taxes and any liens therefor be marked "satisfied and fully discharged."

No. 710.

Mayor's Office,

Pittsburgh, Pa., December 22, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, C. C. No. 477, entitled, "An Ordinance authorizing the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Public Works to advertise and award a contract for the building of steps on Cawley street, from Grandview avenue to West Carson street."

I am advised by competent engineering authority that the slope of Duquesne Heights from Grandview avenue to West Carson street is such as to prohibit the construction of steps within such a narrow space as the width of this street. The steps would be so built as to not only be inconvenient for any considerable use, but be dangerous to persons using them as well.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

And

C. C. Bill No. 477. An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance authorizing the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Public Works to advertise for and award a contract or contracts for the building of steps on Cawley street, from Grandview avenue to West Carson street, and authorizing the setting aside of the sum of two thousand two hundred and fifty ($2,250.00) dollars from Appropriation No. 48, Boardwalks and Steps."

Was read.

And no action being taken on the ordinance at the next meeting of Common Council, after five days had expired, as required by law, the objections of the Mayor were sustained and the bill failed to become a law.

No. 711.

Mayor's Office,

Pittsburgh, Pa., December 22, 1909.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, C. C. No. 462, being the exoneration of water taxes of the Crucible Steel Company of America at its La Belle works for the year 1908.

I am advised that the Crucible Steel Company was assessed at the same rate as all other similar consumers during the year 1908, none of whom was exonerated for it and all of whom, on the contrary, have presumably paid. The fact that the rate for that year was different than for the following year does not prove its injustice. Thorough consideration of the question leads me to the conclusion that the rate for the year 1909 is too low rather than the rate of 1908 too high. Furthermore, to open up this subject more than a year after this tax should have been paid will unsettle the water assessment for the year 1908 for that class of consumers.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

And

C. C. No. 462. Whereas, The La Belle works of the Crucible Steel Company of America, located in the old Fifth ward, Allegheny, were assessed in the year 1908, as a minimum meter charge of 10 per cent. of the flat assessment, which resulted in a water tax vastly in excess of the amount of water actually used, which taxes are now delinquent; and

Whereas, in the year 1909, said minimum meter charge was re-adjusted in proportion to the size of the meter, resulting in a vastly decreased water tax; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Crucible Steel Company of America be granted an exoneration sufficient to equalize their water tax for the three quarters of 1908 with 1909, amounting to $734.90.

Was read.

And no action being taken on the resolution at the next meeting of Common Council, after five days had expired as required by law, the objections of the Mayor were sustained and the resolution failed to become a law.

And on motion of Mr. Ferguson,

Council adjourned.

January 31, 1910.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh, Pa.:

The undersigned property owners on Webster avenue, between Tunnel street and Sixth avenue, do hereby remonstrate against the passage of the several ordinances for the change of grade of Webster avenue, Tunnel street and the proposed Grant boulevard, for the following reasons:

First. Said Webster avenue has been improved three times with reference to change of grade, viz: In the year 1837, then again in the year 1847, when a cut of about seven feet was made, as is shown by some of the frame and brick buildings still remaining on said avenue, and lastly in 1907, when the city changed the grade of Webster avenue from Grant street to Tunnel street in connection with the Sixth avenue improvement; and the damages for said change has been only partially settled by said City, as shown by numerous appeals taken by said City in the Court of Common Pleas No. 3 of this county. Further, during the widening of Webster avenue in 1906, and during the change of grade in 1907, many lot owners were deprived of rents from their buildings, and compelled to pay taxes on their real estate by reason of the action of the City to the great damage of the property owners, and the undersigned now assert that registered owners of more than half of the property fronting on Webster avenue, between Grant street and Seventh avenue, are opposed to the passage of said ordinances.

Second. The Pennsylvania railroad tunnel is under the two lots owned by J. J. McAfee at the northwest corner of Webster avenue and Tunnel street, and according to an estimate made in the City Engineer's office there will be a cellar height of only about ten feet under a fourteen foot cut at the corner of Webster avenue and Tunnel street, and about seven feet at the rear of said lots. That the lots of Michael Dyer and of I. Leonard Aronson, which are on the south side of Webster avenue, over said tunnel, will have only about eight and one-half feet of a cellar height; and said change of grade will damage said lots in a special manner.

Third. Said improvement is a general improvement, and, under the law, a general improvement including all damages to lot owners are to be assessed against the municipality; especially so in the present case, the lot owners will not be compelled to have benefits assessed against them when they are not seeking the improvement, and have thrice been compelled to suffer damages by reason of ordinances of said City.

Respectfully submitted.

J. J. McAFEE,
M. DWYER.

Which was read, received and filed.

No. 766.

Mayor's Office.

Pittsburgh, February 7, 1910.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—In accordance with law I beg to transmit herewith the estimates of the city department for appropriations for the fiscal year 1910 of the city. I am unable at this time to inform you as to the exact results of the financial operations of the year 1909 owing to the fact that some warrants have not yet been issued and some which have been issued have not yet been cashed. Owing to an excess of appropriations over estimated revenues and owing to an overestimate of certain of the revenues the executive departments were compelled during the latter months of the year to institute certain economies that have resulted in a saving of between $250,000.00 and $300,000.00. I am happy to report that these economies were made without serious detriment to the public service, and I believe that when all the warrants have been brought in for the fiscal year of 1909 it will be found that the anticipated deficit was entirely avoided, or else that the same is very small.

According to time-honored custom, most of the bureaus make requests for large increases in appropriations. I shall not hesitate in view of the savings shown possible during the past four months to join in the careful pruning of all demands made upon Councils. There are four items over which we have no control, viz., the sinking fund and interest charges, the requisition of the Central Board of Education in the old City of Pittsburgh and the Board of School Control of the old City of Allegheny and judgments and assessments against the city. Increases are asked for in all of these except the Board of School Control of Allegheny. In addition to liberal increases being demanded by nearly all of the bureaus in the various departments there is a larger number of requests from voluntary organizations this year than ever, and of those who have been recognized in the past substantial increases are in most cases expected. I refer to the Carnegie Libraries, the Public Wash House and Bath Association, the Soho Bath Association, the Playgrounds Associations, the Western Theological Seminary, the veterans of the various wars, the National Guard, the University of Pittsburgh, the Flood Commission, the Municipal Lodging House, the proposed Tree Commission, the proposed Building Laws Commission, etc. The aggregate amount of requests from these sources is very large. There will be sufficient increase in revenue on the basis of the present levy to provide for the necessary increase of interest and sinking fund charges, the Central Board of Education and assessments and judgments against the city, but hardly enough to take care of more. It will, therefore, depend upon what your honorable bodies decide to appropriate to departments and the various outside bodies and organizations asking for city aid as to whether the tax millage can remain within its present limit.

I must particularly call your attention to the financial condition of the consolidated and annexed districts. From this year on the revenue from delinquent taxes will rapidly decrease, causing in some cases increases in the millage of these districts.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE.

Mayor.

Which was read.

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

Mr. Forrest presented from the Special Committee on Revision of Salaries:

No. 785.

Pittsburgh, February 11, 1910.

To the Presidents and Members of Select and Common Councils:

Gentlemen—Your Special Committee on Revision of Salaries begs leave to report that it has concluded the work you imposed upon it and reports herewith the several Ordinances embodying the results of its labors.

A large number of the employees of the city and their friends wrongly surmised that the committee was to advance salaries everywhere and in general, but the committee conceived its duty to be the revision and equitable adjustment of salaries.

Your committee realized that the remarkable growth and advancement of our city have added increased labor and responsibility to many of its officials and employees, and in its recommendations considered this fact, and, while believing it possible that all who asked for an increase in salary deserved to have their requests granted, yet the financial condition of the city does not justify a large or general advancement in salaries.

The committee found that, while those employees holding subordinate positions, such as patrolmen and firemen, have received advances in their salaries, from time to time, as the city grew in size and importance, the salaries of their superiors, with few exceptions, remained stationary.

The committee believes in an economical administration of affairs and the payment of fair salaries that will insure the services of capable and efficient men.

The salaries recommended by your committee in the Ordinances presented herewith are considerably less than are paid by cities of like size and importance, and, in some cases, less than are paid by cities of less population.

The committee has recommended a number of new positions, notably in the new Health Department, and to carry out the improvements provided for by the bond issue, but this was done only after the committee was convinced that the increased force was necessary to conduct properly the work of the department or bureau where an increase in the number of employees is recommended.

The constant aim of the committee has been to provide for the adequate recompense of the employees of the city for the services rendered, and to prevent the placing of an unjust burden upon the taxpayers.

Therefore, your committee returns herewith, with an affirmative recommendation, the following Ordinances, with the request that they be referred to the Committee on Finance:

C. C. No. 746. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the Department of City Treasurer.

C. C. No. 747. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the City Clerk.

C. C. No. 748. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the Civil Service Commission.

C. C. No. 749. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the Department of Law.

C. C. No. 750. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the City Controller.

C. C. No. 751. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the Department of Assessors.

C. C. No. 752. An Ordinance fixing the number and salaries of officers and employees in the office of the Mayor.

Pittsburgh, Pa., February 25, 1910.

To the Common Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen:—The following resolution was this day passed by the Board of Directors of the Civic Club:

"Resolved, That the Civic Club of Allegheny County views with alarm the attempt to take the entire management and control of the city playgrounds from the hands of those who have created and fostered this splendid work and place it under a City Bureau, believing that the loss of the personal service that is now so large a factor in its management would be to the great detriment of the continued success and development of the movement; and it therefore respectfully urges that your Honorable Body will not favorably consider any such measure.

"Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to both branches of Council."

No. 812.

Pittsburgh, Pa., February 28, 1910.

To the Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen:—The Civic Club of Allegheny County would respectfully request your Honorable Body to reinstate the whole, or a least a part of the item of $15,000 for payment of expenses under the Tree Commission Act, struck from the Appropriation Budget by Common Councils at its meeting of February 21, as we believe, under a misapprehension of the true intent and purpose and the merits of said Act.

Nothing we believe will add more to the appearance, as well as the health of our city, than the planting of large numbers of shade trees. The only way in which this can be accomplished is to have such planting done in a systematic manner, and that it be made mandatory. The argument that owners of property should not be compelled to plant shade trees if they do not want them is just as applicable to a number of other things it is found necessary to make mandatory upon those who dwell in community centers. It is for the good of the public.

That the administration of this law is to be in the hands of an unpaid commission, the members whereof will undoubtedly be selected for their peculiar fitness for the work, insures that it will be carried out with intelligence and discretion and without undue hardship to property owners.

The cost to such owners will be but a trifle—too small to be considered, when compared to the benefits to follow.

We therefore earnestly urge that provision be made for the carrying out of the purposes of this act.

The Board of Directors of the Civic Club of Allegheny County.

Secretary.

"Resolved, That the New Era Club of Western Pennsylvania, in regular session convened, wishes to enter its protest against the passing of the ordinance introduced on Monday night, February 21, providing that the management of the City Playgrounds be taken out of the hands of the Pittsburgh Playground Association and placed in the hands of the Bureau of Parks of the city, believing that the passing of this ordinance would be highly detrimental to the best interests of this work.

No. 814.

Pittsburgh, Pa., February 28, 1910.

To the Honorable, the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—We have the honor to notify the Councils of the City of Pittsburgh that the Honorable William A. Magee, Mayor of Pittsburgh, has, on the 26th day of February, 1910, appointed as a commission three freeholders, to wit, Edward M. Bigelow, E. S. Morrow and William D. Grimes, to be known and designated as the "Shade Tree Commission" of the City of Pittsburgh, who serve without compensation, and who have conferred upon them, by Act of Assembly of May 31, 1907, the custody and control of, and power to plant, set out, etc., shade trees on the public highways of the city; and further,

That your honorable bodies, by Ordinance recently duly accepted the provisions of the said Act of Assembly, and the said Ordinance was duly passed and approved, and such Shade Tree Commissioners as aforesaid have been appointed.

That under the law, therefore, the Shade Tree Commission is a part of the government of the city, and under the terms of said act is ready to proceed with the carrying out of the intent thereof, with the approval and consent of Councils.

The Shade Tree Commission respectfully calls Councils' attention to Section 3 of said act, which provides:

"That when such Shade Tree Commissioners, or Park Commissioners so acting, shall propose the setting out or planting or removing of any shade trees, or the material changing of the same in any highway, they shall give public notice of the time and place appointed for the meeting at which such contemplated work is to be considered, specifying in detail the highways, or portions thereof, upon which trees are proposed to be planted, removed or changed in one or more—not exceeding two in all—of the newspapers published in said township, borough or city, once each week for at least two weeks prior to the date of said meeting."

It will be seen that under this section of the act any person affected has full opportunity for a hearing in the matter.

The act further provides in Section 5:

"The cost and expense of caring for said trees after having been planted or set out, and the expense of publishing the notices provided for in Section 3 shall be borne and paid for by a general tax, to be levied annually in the manner that taxes for township, borough and city purposes are now levied in such townships of the first class or cities; such tax not to exceed the sum of one-tenth of one mill on the dollar on the assessed valuation of the property in such townships of the first class, boroughs or cities; and the needed amount shall each year, in due time, be certified by the Shade Tree Commissioners to the proper authorities charged with the assessment of taxes in said townships, boroughs or cities, to be assessed and paid, as other taxes are assessed and paid, and to be drawn against as required by said Commissioners in the same manner as moneys appropriated for township, borough or city purposes are now drawn against in said townships, boroughs or cities: Provided, That the Commissioners of any township of the first class, and the Councils of any borough or city, accepting the provisions of this act may provide for the expense of the maintenance of trees on highways, in accordance with the provisions of this section by actual appropriation, equal to the amount certified to be required by the said Commission, in lieu of the specific assessment above authorized."

It will be observed that the commission has complete power to levy annually a tax not to exceed the sum of one-tenth of one mill on the dollar on the assessed valuation of the property in Pittsburgh.

It will be observed, however, that the act provides that Councils may provide for the expense of the work of the Commission by actual appropriation equal to the amount certified to be required by the Commission in lieu of the specific assessment.

The members of the Commission are all, perhaps, more or less known to your honorable bodies, and it is the desire and intention that the work of the Commission be accomplished in accordance with the wishes of Councils and the administration, and the Commission approaches the question with, we believe, a true public spirit to accomplish something for the adornment of the city, and an adornment and benefit which, we believe, will endure for future generations and which will add much to the comfort, beauty and pleasure of the citizens of Pittsburgh and the beauty of the city's highways.

We most respectfully suggest, therefore, that Councils provide, by an appropriation, the sum of fifteen thousand ($15,000.00) dollars, which we do hereby certify to be the amount required by the Commission for the year commencing March 1, 1910.

We call the attention of Councils to the fact that nearly all the great cities of the country have, for a number of years, been active in an endeavor to beautify the city streets, especially in the residential and suburban districts, and that much has been accomplished.

The amount asked for this year, we believe, to be absolutely necessary in order that the Commission may properly investigate the subject and prepare for active work in the years to come. We believe that the body of the citizens is highly in favor of the adornment of our streets by the planting of shade trees with some uniformity and in proper manner, and that the same can be accomplished with very little cost to property owners and will add much to the wealth, beauty and welfare of our great city.

The Shade Tree Commission, therefore, respectfully asks Councils for a favorable consideration of the matter by making the appropriation asked for.

Very respectfully,

E. M. BIGELOW,

E. S. MORROW,

WILLIAM D. GRIMES.

No. 834.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 12, 1910.

President of Common Councils, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Dear Sir—At the last regular meeting of the Hazelwood Board of Trade it was "Resolved, That this Board commend the action of Common Councils in reducing the appropriation to $200,000.00 for Carnegie Libraries, and that the secretary inform the Presidents of Select and Common Councils to this effect; with a request that it be read at Council meeting."

Respectfully submitted,

THE HAZELWOOD BOARD OF TRADE,
WM. M. MAXWELL,
Secretary.

Which was read, received and filed.

The Chair took up

No. 835.

Mayor's Office.

Pittsburgh, March 14, 1910.

To the Select and Common Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I always regret when matters arising in municipal legislation are in such form or are incorrect in principle that I cannot join with you in enacting same into law, and particularly when the matters have been unanimously agreed upon by you, but when bills presented to you for your consideration are so inartificially drawn as to bear upon their face defects so gross as to raise a doubt in the mind whether or not they were offered with the intention to effect a serious purpose I cannot give them my official sanction. I must return without my approval C. C. No. 618, the most patent and glaring defect of which is a provision attempting to inflict the penalty of imprisonment upon a corporation; C. C. No. 782, demanding a physical impossibility of street railway companies, viz., a seat for every passenger during the rush hours of the day, and by implication countenancing the crowding of cars during the balance of the day.

With all due respect to your honorable bodies I must express the opinion that neither spasmodic and hysterical public outcry, nor the nostrums of a quack publicist, can effect a cure to the most grievous and complex evil from which the people of this city, as well as most other American cities, suffer. The condition of affairs brought about and gradually growing more acute during many years of legislative improvidence cannot be corrected in a day by an off-hand, made-to-order remedy.

Some time ago you authorized me to employ competent persons to study this subject and report a programme of action. The investigation was begun and has been pursued unrelentingly and is now being concluded by the most eminent authority in this country. I consider it unwise and inopportune to pass Ordinances of the nature above mentioned, as well as C. C. No. 606, which I also return without my approval at this time, for the reason that legislation of this kind prepared by unskilled draughtsmen not qualified to investigate causes and to reach logical conclusions on this intricate subject are certain not to be upheld by the courts, and may therefore prejudice the cause of the people after the investigation I speak of shall have been concluded and proper bills prepared by competent authority.

If these crude productions should ever be submitted to the courts for enforcement an adverse decision might accidentally go beyond the mere form. The principles underlying them might suffer in the judicial mind, and in their consideration some expression of authority may be uttered against the very right of the city to enact Ordinances upon this subject. I consider it my duty in this case, holding a commission from the people, to make no false steps, to guard against impulsive action and to proceed most carefully upon the delicate ground which we are traversing. The enforcement of the rights of the public as a party to the controversy with street railway companies is still in the pioneer stages; whatever rights we have can only be enforced with the aid of the courts of law. The street railway companies have buttressed themselves about with the aid of the best legal talent, have foreseen and anticipated every method of attack and are prepared to contest every step. There is every reason why bills of this character, if it is advisable at all to proceed along these lines, should be drawn with care from the legal point of view and only after all the facts regarding the case are fully known and that they should be put into force at the logical moment.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

No. 836.

March 14, 1910.

To the Select and Common Council of the City of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen:—I return herewith, without my approval, C. C. No. 816, a resolution directing the Director of the Department of Public Safety to refund the deposit paid by newspaper reporters for badges for the reason that the $2 is a necessary forfeit for the return of the police badge to the Department when the term of service of the reporter on police work terminates. It is true, as recited in the resolution, that the badge is worth intrinsically less than two dollars and that the deposit remains in the possession of the Chief Clerk of the Department during the time that the badge is in use, but the same deposit is required from policemen and all other city employees who are required to use such emblem of authority. Not only would the city lose the value of the badge if a money forfeit was not deposited for the return of the same, but in a short time there probably would be a large number of badges in general use by unauthorized persons who would use same without authority of law, as employees and other persons upon leaving their employment would fail to return their badges and the same would find their way into the hands of persons who would use them, perhaps, for wrongful purposes. Not only do I consider the $2 forfeit necessary but would even favor increasing the same to avoid such possibility.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

No. 837.

March 18, 1910.

To the Select and Common Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I return herewith, with my approval, C. C. No. 609, except $25,000.00 of the item "Carnegie Libraries, $250,000.00," reducing the same unless overruled by your honorable bodies to $225,000.00. My reason for this action is that an effort must be made in all departments towards retrenchment. This year all appropriations, including the most vital municipal necessities, have been cut to a minimum to meet an urgent demand from the taxpayers. I do not have any fear that a judicious scrutiny of the expenditures of the libraries will reveal opportunities for curtailment of expenditures without reducing the efficiency of the institution.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM A. MAGEE,

Mayor.

Mayor's Office, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Attest:

HOWARD B. OURSLER,

Secretary.

Which was read, received and filed.

"Mr. Chairman and members of Council, I am at this time a member of the Library Committee and know the absolute necessity and needs of that institution and think the amount appropriated is entirely too small, and the management will not be able to run the institution in a proper manner if they cut the appropriation down any at all; and for this reason I therefore vote 'aye.'"
